

WELCOME BACK!

New year, new you! Its been a crazy summer! Some of you have gotten jobs or gone on vacation or maybe you stayed in town and hung out with your friends. Either way, it was a busy time.

This school year, let's make a point to do as Psalm 46:10 says. "Be still and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth." Be still. It's more than something moms tell wiggly toddlers. When we are 'still', we are calm and don't tremble in our enemy's presence. We are to KNOW and take comfort in the fact that He is God. We can be absolutely sure that God will be exalted, which means He will be 'raised up'.

Adults who have been Christians for decades have trouble with this. We, as humans, have a hard time letting go of things we THINK we can control instead of depending on God. It would be a blessing if you started practicing this in your youth!

Just try to remember when you're feeling overwhelmed, God is in control. Be still. Be calm. Have faith in His promises. You are loved, dears.
