

SLOW TO ANGER

We've all been angry a time or twenty. It happens. We're human. However, James 1:20 says the anger of man doesn't produce the righteousness of God.

Think about it. When you get angry are you prone to an outburst? Do you do or say things that you later regret? Maybe you refuse to talk to whoever wronged you. Do you think those actions or words glorify God? Of course not. Most of the time, I know it's hard to have the self-control to stay calm and speak love when you're angry. Proverbs 25:28 says, 'A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.' No self-control leaves you vulnerable to constant attack by the enemy.

Let's talk about 'quick to hear and slow to speak'. When you are having a disagreement with someone, do you listen to what they say? Or are you trying to think of what you'll say next? When we have the maturity to listen and REALLY try to hear what they're saying, an argument can be cleared up pretty quick. You may also have to have the maturity to understand that the argument is about you or the other person trying to prove who is right. In that case it's best to just shut your face because it doesn't really matter who is right and who is wrong. What glory does it bring to God to fight with someone about how wrong they are?

Keep in mind the fruits of the Spirit in any disagreement and you'll honor God.

It came to my attention last month that the pantry we use to feed the needy in our community is completely empty. That means when people come to the office to get help to feed their families, we have nothing to give them. Let's change that!
